ASSUMPTIONLESS HEIGHT BOUNDS FOR RANDOM TREES

LOUIGI ADDARIO-BERRY
McGill University, Montréal, Québec, Canada
e-mail: louigi.addario@mcgill.ca

The talk will describe some recent results concerning the height of random combinatorial trees. The philosophy behind these results is that large degrees make short trees; the aim is to have explicit bounds for finite trees, rather than asymptotic results or limit theorems.